VII. OSU UPDATES

i. COVID-19 Update

Hamza updates the board that for the time being, meetings will still be held virtually until more decisions are made about moving meetings back to in-person format. Jeff explains further that the board will continue to monitor the situation and move back to in-person meetings, all precautions will be taken in consideration with state, federal, and University regulations. Babita suggests that the board continue to hold hybrid meetings. Updates will be given once the situation is re-evaluated.

ii. Board Recruitment

Jeff explains that the current board will serve until June 2022, and the board will begin building the onboarding program for new board members. Next meeting will go more in-depth about how the process will be managed. It is of interest to allow adequate time to train the incoming board members for July, when their term begins. Hamza encourages current board members to reapply.

VIII. OC3 UPDATES

i. Updates from the OC3 from Javier and Victoria

Victoria updates that the OSU center was open for winter break and now that the semester has started again, students are gathering again. OC3 is currently celebrating the Lunar New Year and preparing for various activities to honor Black History/Heritage Month.

VIII. ANNOUNCEMENTS

- i. Jeff Rensel: OSU Open House was a success, all OSU partner participated and there was a lot of good engagement. We had approximately 200-250 participants in the Open House. The OSU has been working on updating OSU Guideline updates and would like to share information at the next board meeting for discussion and input.

In addition, the OSU requires all members of the board to complete a Related Party Questionnaire and Conflict of Interest form. Board members will receive a communication about completing this form and will be expected to return the signed form so that we can keep it on file.

- ii. John Fraire announces new hire, Director for OC3.

- iii. Babita: Inquires about requesting feedback from students to help improve satisfaction on campus and involvement of the board. Jeff announces that the OSU will be enhancing the meditation room, looking forward to hearing feedback on those improvements.

iv. Hamza announces that Smokey will be staying with the board for the remainder of the semester.

vi. Andres asks if the OSU has any say in how food services are provided on campus. Jeff explains that a food service committee has been formed this semester. The function of the committee is to include student perspectives, address concerns, and improve operations on campus. Andres explains that he has received questions about reasonings for meal exchange policies and hours of operation.

vii. Babita inquires about the leadership training for board members that was mentioned in the previous meeting. John explains that the board members receive training at the beginning of the semester and asks Babita for further clarification. Babita would like to see opportunities for students to grow even more. More discussion continues between John, Jeff, and Babita about increased communication and development opportunities. Jeff explains that John, Jeff, and Diana have joined the OSU in the past year and are looking forward to bringing their previous board experience to further develop processes. Hamza confirms that now that major vacancies have been filled, there will be better ability to invest resources in training.

vii. Updates regarding future in-person meetings for this semester will be given as soon as there is more information.
